

Brief for the appointment of PA to Head

In partnership with

COGNITA

THRIVING SCHOOLS. INSPIRING FUTURES.

Cognita has entered into a partnership with Alleyn's to create two leading independent day schools in north London.

Alleyn's is south London's finest coeducational day school, consistently placed within the top London schools for academic achievement and winner of the Independent Co-educational School of the Year Award 2025. Cognita's flagship London schools, North Bridge House Regent's Park and North Bridge House

Hampstead, became part of the new Alleyn's Schools Group. Alleyn's Regent's Park opened in September 2025 and Alleyn's Hampstead opened in September 2026.

A new Junior School has opened in Hampstead in 2026, creating a through school for children aged 2–18, with Nursery, Junior, Senior and Sixth Form sections.

✿ We're excited to see how you'll help shape the future at Cognita. Good luck with your application – we can't wait to see what you'll bring.

I am so thrilled that you are interested in the role of Personal Assistant to the Head here at Alleyn's Hampstead. As Head of Alleyn's Hampstead, it is my great privilege to be able to tell you a little more about who we are and what we stand for, and I hope very much that you will see why I am so proud of the school and excited about its journey.

Alleyn's Hampstead is a co-educational, independent, selective 2-18 school embedded in beautiful Hampstead village. It is a warm, friendly and ambitious school which, as part of the Alleyn's Schools Group, embraces a values-driven forward-looking education. Our ROCCK values (Respect, Opportunity, Curiosity, Courage, and Kindness) are the kernel of everything we are trying to achieve and are at the very heart of the behaviours that my colleagues and pupils model.

As part of the Alleyn's Schools Group, we model our practices on the routines that have been established at Alleyn's School, in Dulwich – described by the Tatler Schools Guide as the 'epicentre of forward thinking education'. We benefit from close links with the community there and in the spirit of partnership we work together to improve education for all our pupils. At the same time, we have the freedom to respond to the needs of our community flexibly and always seek to develop the right approach for our context.

I do hope that the information in this pack gives you a taste of what a marvellous place our school is, and helps to capture some of the unpretentious warmth that is core to our daily life. There is nothing entitled, stuffy or pompous about our school and we really hope that you enjoy discovering that for yourself during this recruitment process as you meet our engaging and grounded young people. They are a joy to work with and the staff-pupil dynamic in our schools is especially strong.

With warmest wishes

Aidan Sproat-Clements
Head, Alleyn's Hampstead

So, why Alleyn's? Alleyn's is part of a historic foundation which has been educating young people for more than 400 years. Our namesake and founder, Edward Alleyn, was one of the great Elizabethan players, and playful academic exploration and discovery is something we very much welcome at our schools. As well as acting, Edward Alleyn was also a philanthropist. His school was established to change the lives of children – initially "12 poor scholars". It is rather wonderful that the original 12-strong cohort has grown into the large, thriving community of the Alleyn's Schools Group, with more than two thousand children across north and south London, reflecting and living out the founder's vision. Alleyn's has been honouring his legacy as one of this country's leading co-educational schools for generations and we are delighted that you are interested in joining this group.

May I wish you the very best of luck with this application and in the future.

Warmest wishes

Mrs Jane Lunn
Head, Alleyn's
